Lord Most High, when you divided to the nations their inheritance, when you separated the sons of Adam, you gave America her inheritance in various natural and human resources. We declare that this nation was covenanted to you by our Founding Fathers. We reaffirm that covenant and declare that we are a nation under God. And in God, we Trust. You set the boundaries of America. We pray that you will preserve those boundaries so that they are not breached by our enemies.

The scepter of the wicked shall NOT prevail on the inheritance that is allotted to the righteous. (Psalms 125:3)

We declare that the scepter of the wicked, the authority and power of radical Islam and its cunning and crafty agents in and outside America, shall NOT prevail on the inheritance that you allotted to us Americans. We therefore pray that You will preserve our nation in peace so that we will reverently enjoy your abundant blessings and our descendants after us. (Psalms 125:3)
